

Cultura Collective Drama Workshops

Cultura Collective is a group of international artists that work together creating theatre and artistic projects. In our workshops we will be using professional techniques and training from our own company to give you an insight into actor training and performing arts.

Get ready to have fun, discover
& learn something new!

